

The Soups of Mahi Koç

Edited by Laurie Koç

These soup recipes were written while Mahi Koç was visiting her son and daughter-in-law in Oregon during the summer of 1993. The recipes were developed using ingredients available in the United States, but closely follow the cooking traditions of Mahi Hanım's native cities Ağrı and Kars in Northeastern Turkey. There are as many variations of these soups as the number of meals served in the Koç household.

Afiyet olsun.

Fruit and Nut Soup

Aşure

1 cup garbanzos
1 cup barley

1 cup sugar, or to taste
water to make about four quarts
1/2 cup filberts, toasted
1/2 cup walnut pieces
ground walnuts for topping

The night before, rinse and soak the beans (garbanzo and white together) and the barley in 2 different bowls. In the morning, drain and cook until tender, again in 2 pans. In a large pot, combine beans, barley, fruit, sugar, and water. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until fruit is very soft and barley starch is released. Correct for sweetness; stir in filberts and walnuts. Allow to cool or refrigerate, if desired. Serve as snack or dessert with walnuts sprinkled on top.
